

Saracens Sport Foundation Casual Coach Job Description

Role: Community Coach

Hours: Casual hours

Hourly Rate: £20 per hour

Reports to: Rugby Participation Manager

Due to the ongoing success of the Saracens Sport Foundation, we are seeking additional casual coaches to add to our delivery capacity and continue a high level of coaching on programmes across North London and Hertfordshire.

The Saracens Sport Foundation is a registered charity which exists to enhance the lives of children and young people through the power of sport. It achieves this through the delivery of high quality and innovative programmes that promote the benefits of sport, physical activity and a healthy lifestyle. Saracens Sport Foundation delivers its work in partnership with key local statutory agencies including schools, colleges and FE establishments, county sports partnerships, local councils, youth offending teams and the local community.

You will be expected to coach a variety of inclusive tag, touch and contact rugby activities and deliver cross curricular sessions in secondary school setting. In addition to coaching, a key aspect of the role involves various admin tasks when necessary. Working across secondary schools, a proven ability to build relationships in these environments is essential.

Responsibilities

- To deliver on a rugby participation programme that includes delivering tag, touch or contact sessions to boys or girls in secondary schools, either curriculum or after-school.
- Plan, organise, deliver and review all sessions.
- Complete all aspects of monitoring and evaluation of all delivered sessions.
- Use the Saracens values to engage and increase participation in under-represented groups.
- To have regular meeting/catch-up's with project managers.

Essential

- UKCC Level 2 Coaching Qualification in Rugby Union
- Experience of working with a range of children aged 6-18
- Current Driving Licence and have access to a suitable vehicle
- Hold or willing to apply for a current Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Certificate
- A passion for sport and an understanding of wider issues related to sport, health and education
- Good organisation and time management skills
- Excellent communication, motivation and ability to inspire others
- Willingness to work flexible hours, if necessary

Desirable

- Attended 3 or more RFU CPD workshops
- Valid first aid qualification
- Good understanding of barriers to participation in the local area

Application

Delivery hours are available, mainly during term time, once all checks have taken place and a period of shadow/observation has been completed.

Applicants should send a current CV and covering letter to projectrugby@saracens.net or via post to Scarlett Cooper-Wall, Saracens Sport Foundation, Allianz Park, Greenlands Lane, Hendon, NW4 1RL.
